2025 Farmers' Market Rules

Mission Statement

The Baraboo Farmers' Market is an outlet for Wisconsin-produced homegrown fruits, vegetables, meats, cheese, eggs, bakery products, cider, maple syrup, honey, fresh and dried flowers, herbs and herbal products, bedding plants, houseplants, nursery stock, jams and jellies, prickles, and other prepared food products. The market is intended to give growers, producers of goods, and consumers an opportunity to deal directly with each other, rather than through third parties. The Market is intended to enhance the downtown area of the City of Baraboo.

Eligibility

Any vendor whose goods are in compliance with market rules and guidelines is eligible to sell at the market. However, any vendor whose vending privileges at the market were terminated because of noncompliance with the rules, may not be eligible to resume vending at the market.

Proof of product liability insurance may be required for all vendors of potentially hazardous products.
9. The vendors are not permitted to sell eggs, meat, fish, milk, prepared food or other value-added products at the market without the appropriate State of Wisconsin license, even though some of these products may be legally sold to customers at the vendor's farm.
